(Beaver Dam) Good Karma Broadcasting announced the promotion of longtime radio personality John Moser to Station Manager of WBEV-AM, WXRO-FM, and WTTN-AM.

Good Karma Broadcasting President/CEO Craig Karmazin stated that integrity, enthusiasm, and work ethic are some of the qualities that have contributed to Moser's success with the stations. Karmazin added, "For over 30 years, John has displayed an unparalleled commitment and passion for these radio stations and this community." Karmazin added

"I'm honored to work with a great group of dedicated, loyal employees," Moser stated, "All of us at the stations will work together to continue to provide the level of local, community service that our listeners and advertisers deserve."

John Moser has been working for WBEV for over 30 years and handled responsibilities including News Director, Program Director and Sales Manager. In addition, the Beaver Dam-native has been on the top-rated "Bill and John Morning Show" with Bill McCollum since his first day on the job on March 1, 1973.

Good Karma Broadcasting is based in Beaver Dam, Wisconsin and owns and operates eight radio stations in three states. Karmazin formed the company in 1997, with the purchase of WBEV and WXRO.
